UNITED STATES INFORMATION
AGENCY*Academic Year Program NIS
Administration Components*ACTION: Notice—Request for Proposals.

SUMMARY: The Division for the NIS Secondary School Initiative, Office of Citizen Exchanges, of the United States Information Agency's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs announces an open competition for an assistance award to conduct a package of administrative components for the Academic Year Program. Public and private non-profit organizations meeting the provisions described in IRS regulation 26 CFR 1.501(c)(3)-1 may apply to develop a package of various components for the 1997-98 Academic Year Program (AYP), as spelled out below, for 1,000 high school students from the 12 New Independent States (NIS) of the former Soviet Union. This RFP is only for this package of components; grants for the placement and supervision of the students in the United States on this program and other components will be competed separately. Final award of a grant or grants is subject to the availability of funding.

Overall grant making authority for this program is contained in the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, Public Law 87-256, as amended, also known as the Fulbright-Hays Act. The purpose of the Act is "to enable the Government of the United States to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries * * *; to strengthen the ties which unite us with other nations by demonstrating the educational and cultural interests, developments, and achievements of the people of the United States and other nations * * * and thus to assist in the development of friendly, sympathetic and peaceful relations between the United States and the other countries of the world." The funding authority for the program cited above is provided in part through the Department of State from the Agency for International Development.

Programs and projects must conform with Agency requirements and guidelines outlined in the Solicitation Package. USIA projects and programs are subject to the availability of funds.

ANNOUNCEMENT TITLE AND NUMBER: All communications with USIA concerning this announcement should refer to the above title and reference number E/P-96-33.
